OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 18 November 1970

1. (Confidential - GLC) Talked with C. B. Morrison, in the office of Senator Allen J. Ellender (D., La.), this morning and asked him to tell Senator Ellender that we were interested in talking with him at his earliest convenience in order to get the benefit of his observation and impressions on his recent trip abroad. Morrison said he was meeting the Senator at the airport this afternoon and he would make a point of telling him this at that time.

4. (Unclassified - LLM) Attended a meeting at the Office of Management and Budget at which Bill Fisher and Walter Haase presided and which covered a legislative tracking system which OMB hopes to install with Government-wide input for the 92nd Congress. As it stands now the Agency will not have an input role.
